SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

Don't forget the lyceum attraction March 9th.

If you need terms on furniture, coffins or caskets, see G. O. Simmons.

Those liable to income tax should make returns to the auditor before the 10th of this month.

We hope March will be as good a month for renewals and new subscribers as was February.

Call up the Arcade, No. 27, and buy your tickets for the Toronto Male Quartette March 9th.

Mr. J. Frank Brabham has purchased the Koger residence on Railroad Avenue, and will occupy it at once.

Next Monday is the first Monday and sale day. There are no public sales to be held here by any of the officials.

It is now unlawful to shoot partridges, the time having expired the first of March. Hunters should take notice of the fact.

Don't forget the fourth number of the lyceum course will be here March 9th. Tickets now on sale at the Arcade, next door to post office.

Rainy weather we've had this week. The ground is certainly wet now, and the low places are filled with water for the first time in many months.

On account of the railroad wreck at Aiken, there were no passenger trains here last Saturday morning, and the daily papers did not arrive until in the evening.

See those 5c. towels at W. D. Rhoad's.

Mr. J. J. Jones is having his residence on Railroad Avenue remodeled and improved. It will be a handsome colonial home when the remodeling is completed.

Beautiful line ladies' collars, jabots, and neckties at W. D. Rhoad's. There were some errors in the account of the death of Mr. J. F. Rhoad. His father is Mr. Miles Rhoad, of this city, and the young man was not a traveling salesman but a telegraph operator.

Everything is in the coffin and casket line at G. O. Simmons's furniture store.

City Clerk and Treasurer M. W. Brabham tells us that city taxes are about paid up. There is only about $120 to be paid yet, which is a fine record. The total taxes this year will bring in an income of about $5,000, the levy being twelve mills.

None of the candidates who stood the examinations for census enumerators in Barnwell county passed, and another examination will be held in Barnwell, Allendale and Blackville on Saturday, February 26th.—Barnwell Sentinel.

Latest thing in hair dressing: military turbans, 25c at W. D. Rhoad's.

Bamberg real estate is no drug on the market these days, and it brings good prices, too. The town is growing right along, and there is building and improvements going on constantly. Ride around town and see the new buildings recently built and now going up, and you will believe the town is not finished yet, by a long way.

The nicest and cheapest line of baby goods I ever bought. This is no fairy tale, cost or slaughter sale. Live and let live profits. Come see the goods. W. D. RHOD.

At the regular meeting of Bamberg lodge, Knights of Pythias, held last Monday evening, the rank of Page was conferred on Mr. J. W. McCue. The rank of Esquire is to be conferred at the next meeting. A report was had from J. F. Carter, B. W. Wiley, and H. N. Bellinger, who attended the district convention in Aiken last week.

Nice line of linens, silks and mercerized cotton goods in shantung and diagonal weaves, the season's latest offerings, at W. D. Rhoad's.

A number of people in this county have not yet made their tax returns, and in order to accommodate them, the comptroller general has extended the time until the 10th of March. After that date the penalty will certainly attach, so if you have not made your returns, be sure to attend to it before the 10th of this month and save yourself trouble and expense. The auditor does not want to put this penalty on, but he is forced to do it under the law.

Thursday morning the petit jurors for the second week were drawn, and are as follows:

Lyceum Attraction.

We will present to the public of this city the Toronto Male Quartette March 9th.

The above attraction is one of the best and highest class entertainments on the road, and if you fail to hear them you will regret it.

Don't forget the date and place. Tickets on sale at the Arcade Fountain, next door to post office. Telephone No. 27.

MURPHY & ALLEN, Managers.

Prisoners in Jail.

Sheriff Hunter has the following prisoners in jail awaiting trial at court next week:

Hosaa Odum—murder. Clarence McMillan, Sam Tyler, and Otis Brabham—murder. These are the parties concerned in the death of Sam Tyler, all three of the hunting party being held for trial as a result of the preliminaries held.

Charley Holman—housebreaking and larceny.

Pink McAllister—housebreaking and larceny.

Ladus Smalls—housebreaking and larceny.

Eldon Smith—rape.

Will Prescott—housebreaking and larceny.

There are a number of civil cases to be tried also, and it is likely that court will continue for two weeks.

Man Badly Cut.

Monday, on the plantation of Mr. S. W. Sandifer near town, a negro named Rebecca Stokes slashed a negro man named Robert Wood, Jr., with a razor, and the man is seriously wounded. The woman says, so we understand, that Wood attempted to assault her and she cut him. Wood says that he made a proposal to her and she refused and when he caught hold of her dress in a playful manner, she cut him with the razor. Wood is seriously wounded, and is now at the home of his mother just outside of town. The razor cut a tremendous gash on the side of his face, reaching down to the throat. Wood was wanted on the charge of stealing chickens, but his condition did not warrant his arrest. No charge of attempted assault has been lodged against him, nor has the woman been arrested for the cutting. Nothing will be done until his wounds get better or worse.

PAINTER WAS HUNGRY.

Permitted Himself Run Over to Get Some Money.

At New York Charles Smith, a house painter with no home, told the hospital physician that he was so hungry Wednesday night that he allowed himself to be knocked down and run over in order that he might obtain a meal. Smith was crossing an up-town street when a horse, driven by a fashionably dressed woman came along. Smith stepped in front of the horse, was knocked down and the run-about passed over him. A policeman wanted to arrest the woman, but Smith refused to make a complaint, saying that all he wanted was money enough to get a meal. The woman handed him $5 and she was allowed to go on her way. Smith's injuries were trifling.

Baptist Church News and Notices.

Observance of the Lord's Supper the first Sunday in each quarter.

NEWS AND NOTICES.

The pastor preached a sermonette Sunday morning, being the second on church and denominational works. He preached a short sermon on account of conference immediately following.

At night the pastor preached on Christ the matchless teacher, as a fitting climax of the Sunday-school studies in the sermon on the mount. Our committee on repairs and improvements are at work getting estimates on pews, etc. From the tone of the expressions Sunday, it looks like we are likely to have some nice pews some time before very long.

A committee of ladies was appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the recent death of Mrs. Harmon, who in health was an active member of our church.

Our Sunday-school observed monthly missionary day Sunday, and as usual did a handsome thing. Nearly $8.50 was raised. If any other Sunday-school in the Barnwell Association wants to have the banner for the most liberal contributions any of the time, they had as well "get a hump" on themselves.

Mrs. Bullock to Speak.

Mrs. Bullock, a national lecturer and organizer for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will be in our town on the 10th of this month to speak for prohibition. Place of meeting will be announced later. Let us renew the fight and never cease until we win State-wide prohibition. Member of W. C. T. U.

Women Organize U. D. C. Chapter.

The ladies of Bamberg are making fine progress in their organization of a "U. D. C." chapter. There have been two call meetings, both of which were well attended. At the last one, the most important matter, that of selecting a name, was discussed and after various suggestions the chapter unanimously elected to be called the "Francis Marion Bamberg Chapter of Bamberg."

The object of this organization is to keep alive an interest in "the lost cause," and every woman in Bamberg county who can is urged to become a member of this chapter.

Those women entitled to membership are widows, wives, mothers, sisters, nieces, and lineal descendants of such men as served honorably in the Confederate army, navy or civil service, or of those persons who loyally gave material aid to the Southern cause during the war.

There is now in the bank the sum of $300 contributed towards a Confederate monument fund, and something like $1200 has been promised for the same purpose.

This monument work is what the ladies propose taking up first. The charter has already been signed by nineteen members and is still open to as many as would like to be charter members. Remember that this is an organization in which every woman of the South should take an interest if not for herself for her children's sake. We want the women of the county to feel that they have a part with us in this work.

The time of meeting will be announced through this paper, and Mrs. G. F. Bamberg, Mrs. H. J. Brabham, or Mrs. J. W. McCue will be glad to give any information desired. M. C. McC.

Spinster's Strange Will.

An extraordinary will has been left by an elderly unmarried lady who recently died in Vienna. Her property, amounting to about $250,000, is to be divided between her three nephews, now aged 24, 27, and 29, and her three nieces, aged 19, 21, and 22, in equal parts on the following conditions:

The six nephews and nieces must all live in the house formerly inhabited by their aunt, with the executor, a lawyer. None of the nephews is to marry before reaching his fortieth year, nor the nieces before their thirtieth; the share of the one so marrying will be divided. Further, the six legatees are admonished never to quarrel. If one should do so persistently the executor is empowered to turn him or her out of the house and divide the share. The executor is himself forbidden to marry or to reside elsewhere than in the house with the legatees.

The old maid is said to have made this peculiar will because her nephews and nieces continually worried her by asking her to give them money to enable them to marry—requests she always refused.—London Letter from Vienna.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Knights of Pythias Have Excellent Meeting.

The Third District Convention of the Knights of Pythias met in Aiken Friday. There were 45 delegates representing 24 lodges in attendance and all were well pleased with the meeting. The exercises proper began at 11 o'clock in the morning, when a business session was held. Again another business session was held at three o'clock in the afternoon, at which the election of officers was held for the ensuing year. The following is a list of them:

District Deputy Grand Chancellor, J. F. Carter, Bamberg. Vice District Deputy Grand Chancellor, Jas. F. Byrnes, Aiken. Secretary, Benjamin Wyman, Barnwell. Treasurer, H. M. Mathis, Blackville.

Inside Guardian, Prof. Horace Crouch, Barnwell.

After the adjournment of this meeting all the knights repaired to the Park in the Pines Hotel where the visiting delegates were the guests of the local lodge. A sumptuous repast had been ordered by Mr. Sherrard, with appropriate menus for souvenirs. This was a very happy occasion and was enjoyed to the fullest extent by every one.

At eight o'clock in the evening a public meeting was held in the court house, to which all the friends of the lodge and people generally were invited. At this meeting besides the address of the evening by the Hon. Charles Carroll Simms, of Barnwell, there were several addresses of welcome by prominent men of Aiken and the response, by a visiting brother. Hon. Finley Henderson welcomed the visitors on the part of the lodge in a very happy little talk. In the words of the famous one who would soon return, "back from Elba," the people of Aiken and the lodge especially were delighted to have the delegates among us.

Mayor Salley, on the part of the town, next welcomed the visitors within the gates of Aiken. Mayor Salley said that he hoped that the Knights had not found it necessary for him to tell them they were welcome, for had they not already showed it by their actions? The addresses of welcome were responded to on the part of the visitors by the recently elected District Deputy Grand Chancellor J. F. Carter, of Bamberg. Mr. Carter wished to thank the people of Aiken for their welcome and entertainment, assuring them that all that would be necessary for the Convention to vote for a meeting in Aiken in the future would be the mere invitation. Mr. Carter made a very pleasant impression upon the audience.

After the response by Mr. Carter, Hon. D. S. Henderson introduced the speaker of the evening, Past Grand Chancellor Chas. Carroll Simms, of Barnwell. Mr. Simms spoke at some length upon the subject of Pythianism, holding the closest attention from his hearers throughout. Mr. Simms set forth the aims and ambition of the Pythians and especially the ideas of the founders of the order. He made a masterful address, one that will be long remembered by those who were fortunate enough to hear it.

The visiting knights were very much pleased with the reception accorded them by the people of Aiken and all united in their praises of the Convention city. It need not be said that their presence was a source of great pleasure to the local knights.—Aiken Journal and Review.

Burglar's Widow Gets Insurance. New York, Feb. 27.—The novel contention that the applicant misstated his occupation as that of a traveling salesman, when in fact he was a professional burglar, has failed to support the refusal of one of the large insurance companies to pay a $5,000 policy of the life of Adolph Bertchey, alias "Big Bill" Travis, a burglar who was put to death in the State prison at Trenton, N. J., last August for murder. The company decided not to force the issue in the courts and sent a check to "Big Bill's" widow, of this city.

The company had further contended that death by legal execution was not contemplated in the contract with Bertchey and that as his own act in killing a man was directly responsible for his death, he was to all intents and purposes a suicide, which absolved the company from responsibility.

Took Whipping With a Trace. Saluda, Feb. 26.—Hardy Mobley, the young negro who so vilely cursed J. E. Zeigler and drew his gun on him a day or two ago, has been released from jail and will not be prosecuted. The negro sent for Mr. Zeigler and begged him to whip him until he was satisfied in lieu of pressing the prosecution. This was reluctantly agreed to and Mobley was stretched across a barrel and given a dose of "buggy trace" that he will probably never forget.

STRENOUS BRIDEGROOM.

Walked Fifteen Miles for License and Five With Wife.

Rather than delay his wedding by waiting Friday night for a train that was late, John M. Miller, a farmer living five miles from Duquoin, Ill., walked five miles to Pinckneyville to get the license and ten miles to the city with the temperature near zero. His marriage to Mrs. Mary A. Terry took place on schedule time, but to get back to his home, where a reception awaited them, the bride and groom were compelled to walk the five miles, through the lack of any conveyance.
